

To save American jobs and boost our economy, Congress should pass asbestos litigation reform immediately. An estimated 60,000 workers are unemployed because of asbestos-related bankruptcies and downsizing. Asbestos litigation will reduce or eliminate pension and retirement payments for millions more. That is why I am working with my colleagues in both chambers to move forward with sweeping reforms.